SPEC'S Cheese of the Week

Marieke Raw Milk Gouda

Made in Thorp, Wisconsin, Marieke's raw milk gouda is as good as it gets. Holstein cows provide the freshest milk, directly from their milkings to the cheesemaking vat. Marieke Raw Milk Gouda is then aged for nine months. The taste starts slightly sweet and then is rounded out with pleasant nuttiness and finishes with a sharp, piquant bite due to the raw milk. The firm, smooth texture adds to its indulgent nature.
